Purpose

- 1 This policy governs the recognition of members of Council and employees who pass away while in service with Rocky View County (“the County”).

Policy Statement

- 2 Rocky View County recognizes the need for a consistent and meaningful way to commemorate members of Council and employees who pass away while in service with the County.

Policy

Commemoration

- 3 With approval of the deceased individual’s personal representative, the County flag will be flown at half mast for the first weekday following the notification of the death of a current employee or member of Council.
- 4 Memorial Grove is an area on County Hall lands designated for trees planted in memory of members of Council and employees who pass away while in service.
- 5 Operational Services will select the type of and specific tree to be planted at Memorial Grove in alignment with the County Hall landscaping plan.
- 6 The office of the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) will seek permission from the deceased individual’s personal representative to commemorate the deceased individual at Memorial Grove.

- 7 Commemoration at Memorial Grove includes:
 - (1) a planted tree; and
 - (2) an engraving on the Memorial Grove plaque, including the deceased individual's name and years of service.
- 8 Human Resources will send flowers to the deceased individual's family home or the memorial location, or make a donation in lieu of flowers, according to the direction of the personal representative.

Annual Ceremony

- 9 Human Resources will organize an annual tree dedication ceremony for employees and members of Council who passed away the previous year.
- 10 Human Resources will consult the deceased individual's personal representative and receive approval regarding the content of the ceremony.
- 11 County employees preparing speeches for the ceremony will consider the following when selecting the types of personal information to share at the ceremony:
 - (1) the wishes of the deceased individual's personal representative and family;
 - (2) the reliability of the information;
 - (3) the sensitivity of the information;
 - (4) the effect of the disclosure on the individual's reputation;
 - (5) the manner of disclosure;
 - (6) the views expressed by the individual while living; and
 - (7) any reservations expressed by other employees.
- 12 A personal representative may request to pre-approve all speeches and presentations and/or that spontaneous speeches be prohibited at the ceremony.
- 13 Upon approval of the personal representative, invitations to the tree dedication ceremony will be extended to the deceased individual's family, active members of Council, and employees.

Expense

- 14 Flowers sent to the deceased individual's family will not cost more than $150.00, including delivery and GST.
- 15 A donation in lieu of flowers will be no more than $150.00.
